Dear friends:

This year, with the tragic murder of Manchester Police Officer Michael Briggs, New Hampshire had a vivid reminder of the dangers that the men and women of law enforcement face every day to protect all of us. The loss of Officer Briggs was felt throughout the law enforcement community and throughout the State of New Hampshire.

On behalf of the people of New Hampshire, I would like to thank you for all that you do every day and for your response to this tragedy. When the call went out to assist your brethren in their time of need, the members of the New Hampshire State Police were there. Not only on the streets of Manchester, but in the hearts and homes of Officer Briggs's family and friends.

I thank you for answering the call of duty, not just in the immediate aftermath of the murder of Officer Briggs, but for your tireless efforts everyday. On behalf of the people of New Hampshire, I commend you for your professionalism and dedication to keeping us all safe. We thank you for all you do.

As Governor, I've worked to pass laws that will help make our state safer and I will continue to do so moving forward. We will build on the foundation laid last year when we passed one of the toughest laws protecting children from sexual predators. Our job now is to shield children from those who would prey on them through the Internet.

I continue to be committed to our state troopers and making sure you have the support to do your jobs, and to do them safely.

Thank you again for all that you do, and I look forward to continuing to work with all of you in the future.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "John H. Lynch".

John H. Lynch
Governor
